

MAINE INTERFAITH ADVOCACY DAYS

#faithinaction

A two-day event designed to bring people of all faiths together in our state capital to worship, learn, and advocate effectively with Maine's legislators on the issues rooted in our faiths' common social justice traditions.

Monday, March 27 - 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

South Parish Congregational Church

9 Church Street, Augusta

- Keynote by the Rev. Dr. William Barter
- Advocacy workshops with policy experts and faith leaders:
hunger/poverty, homelessness, health care, and climate justice
- Interfaith panel discussion

Tuesday, March 28 - 8:30 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Cross Office Building

11 Sewall Street, Augusta

Equipped with information and inspiration, participants will spend time at the State House in Augusta speaking directly with their Representatives and Senators about pending legislation. Grounded in our shared traditions of justice, peace, and the integrity of creation, we will strengthen our voices of faith and mobilize for action.
